

Name: _____

Date: _____

-ent words 3

The sound (unt) is most often represented by the letters ent when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'silent, s ... i ... l ... e ... n ... t'

If it is silent (si/lent) then there is no noise at all.

To be efficient (ef/fi/cient) means to be quick and effective.

In a tournament (tour/na/ment) people or teams play against each other.

You speak with the same accent (ac/cent) as other people from your area.

If you are confident (con/fi/dent) then you believe in yourself.

To be consistent (con/sis/tent) means that you are the same all the time.

Frequent (fre/quent) means often.

If someone is violent (vi/o/lent) then they hurt other people.

To be innocent (in/no/cent) means to have not done anything wrong.

To be a decent (de/cent) person means to be kind.

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

-ent words 3

The sound (unt) is most often represented by the letters ent when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'silent, s ... i ... l ... e ... n ... t'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

If it is _____ then there is no noise at all.

To be _____ means to be quick and effective.

In a _____ people or teams play against each other.

You speak with the same _____ as other people from your area.

If you are _____ then you believe in yourself.

To be _____ means that you are the same all the time.

_____ means often.

If someone is _____ then they hurt other people.

To be _____ means to have not done anything wrong.

To be a _____ person means to be kind.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.